

Hello from Julia

Welcome to the ACME website. We hope that you will find all the information that you are looking for on ACME's work and its position on various mathematics education issues. From Primary Mathematics to the pair of Mathematics GCSEs, from teachers' continual professional development (CPD) to the mathematical needs of young people, ACME's purpose is to enable an effective and constructive partnership between Government and the mathematics community.

ACME aims to speak as one voice for the mathematics community, so please contact us acme@royalsociety.org if you have any comments.
